Alternative, Black Market and Digital Currencies

You can request data for the following currencies by adding the `show_alternative=true` parameter to your API requests (view documentation (</v0.7/docs/alternative-currencies>)).

ⓘ Subject to addition, modification or removal

Please note that Alternative currencies may be changed or deleted, or new ones added, at any time. We will always post on our Status Page in the event of changes.

ⓘ Future inclusion of ETH and LTC symbols in primary API results

In early 2018, we intend to merge ETH (Ethereum) and LTC (Litecoin) with our 'primary' API results. This means they'll be available to all users, without using the special `show_alternative` parameter.

If you rely on ETH or LTC data in your integration and you use the `show_alternative` parameter to fetch them, then you will still receive them after this change, exactly as before and will not need to change your integration.

However, if you use the (now deprecated) `only_alternative` parameter to fetch LTC or ETH, you will need to modify your integration to use `show_alternative` instead. After this change, `only_alternative` will no longer return ETH or LTC. We will send an email update ahead of this change, giving you ample time to make any needed adjustments.
